

A House Divided

by David J. Stewart

"And Jesus knew their thoughts, and said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand:" —Matthew 12:25

America is a nation divided. We can't seem to agree on anything. America is divided on everything from abortion to politics, from homosexuality to the Iraqi invasion. The divorce rate has skyrocketed in America because our homes are divided. America's churches have never done so little to save our nation, wasting precious time fighting amongst each other like little immature babies. A house divided is a house that is at war with itself. Marriages are destroyed from within, not without. Churches are destroyed from within, not without.

Governments are destroyed from within, not without. America is the land of lawsuits, by the tens-of-thousands every year. If you want to see what a haughty and sinfully proud nation looks like, then look no further than the United States of America. Would you believe that I receive e-mails from professed Christians condemning me for exposing the evils in our nation? It's sad but true. I expect hate mail from the heathens, but not from God's children. You would cringe if you read some of the e-mails I get. America's pastors and preachers are asleep at the wheel.

In surveys conducted at 339 U.S. colleges and universities, more than one-fourth of students and administrators did not list freedom of speech as an essential right protected by the First Amendment to the Constitution, the Washington Times reported Friday. And more than three-fourths did not name freedom of assembly and association or the right "to petition the government for a redress of grievances." This is sad. Do you know your First Amendment Rights? All five of them? No, you probably don't.

America is a house divided in politics. This is the deliberate intent of the controlling powers behind the scenes. Do you really believe that America's government has been Democrat and Republican for the past 229 years by chance? This is by design. America serves a two-party system. More specifically, two sides of the same evil coin. The recent STAGED election between President George W. Bush and Senator John Kerry provided us with a "choice" between a ONE-WORLD democrat or a ONE-WORLD republican. Both candidates are occult members of the order of Skull and Bones. Both are members of the anti-American Council on Foreign Relations.

No matter who wins or losses such an staged election (2004), the New World Order wins. Read about the theft of the 2000 presidential election. By the way, you are contributing to America's desolation every time you vote for these occult members! If you voted for George W. Bush, then the innocent blood of the Iraqi people and their children are on your hands. Unfortunately, their blood is on my hands too because I am an American. It is called "corporate responsibility," we are responsible for the actions of our leaders. Most people could care less. The stench from the Bush administration reaches far into hell. The Democrats are just as evil. God help us...America REPENT!!!

As long as the government can successfully keep us Americans fighting amongst ourselves, they are free to do their dastardly deeds with little or no resistance. Adults who are PRODUCTS of the American public school system are unwitting imbeciles in most cases when it comes to thinking for themselves (sheeple). It's sickening to hear some of the lame excuses I receive from people who have no clue as to the truth about what is going on in the world today. Much misinformation is propagated through the MAIN STREAM news media.

Moral cowards who are afraid of being accountable to the truth prefer to adhere to the illusions provided to them through the news media. The truth is out there folks, but you have to look for it. This is the exactly why most people go to hell...because they're willingly ignorant of the Word of God. If you don't get born-again, you are going straight to hell when you die! I say this kindly, but confidently based upon the Bible.

America's churches are divided. It's the Christians within our churches who gossip, backstab, mistreat, defraud and hurt other people that are helping to destroy America. Instead of fighting against the evils of our day, we are fighting amongst ourselves. Sadly, many of America's churches are no better than the secular workplace or a liquor tavern. I don't think we should have unrealistic expectations when we go into a church because people are going to be people; however, the immature and sometimes senseless behavior of Pastors, Christian workers and church members across America is anything but Christlike. Unfortunately, money seems to be king in most churches, and not the Lord. America's churches are a HOUSE DIVIDED!

The devil is crafty and knows how to toss a monkey-wrench into the production line. The best way to prevent people from thinking is to give them misdirection...lead them down the wrong path. Do you think that this Michael Jackson trial is such a high-profile case by coincidence? It is directing most people's minds away from the criminal activities in Washington. Do you think Monica Lewinski really had Bill Clinton? Hundreds of acquaintances of the Clintons have died premature, strange and untimely deaths (including Vincent Foster).

Monica would have been dead overnight if they wanted her gone. No, the sexual encounter set a mindset (a major distraction) for the American people for the rest of Clinton's presidency. The Oklahoma City Bombing is still a big mystery. We'll Mr. Clinton, what about those two undetonated explosive device which were found in the Murrah building? Where did they go? Why were they white washed with a bogus story of an exploding rental van? The devil is in the works! The devil is a master of propaganda.

One of the sins which God hates in the Bible is "sowing discord." God hates when anyone causes a house to divide. Gossip divides houses! God hates gossip because it DIVIDES! Sin separates, it divides families. Sin divides churches. Sin divides nations. Sin divides marriages. We must be careful with our slanderous tongue not to divide someone's house or marriage. Words are truly more powerful than weapons of war, for words are the perpetrators that have caused many wars (fights). Nothing divides a house like gossip!

A house divided CANNOT stand forever. A house of cards will eventually collapse. As America's dollar continues to devalue, and as our total national debt soars ever higher, and as we plunge further into the immoral abyss of sin, and as the thugs and criminals in Washington continue to build a police state...the destruction of America is imminent!!! America is NATION DIVIDED!

END

Wake-up America! You need to listen to Alex Jones!

"Only a virtuous people are capable of freedom. As nations become corrupt and vicious, they have more need of masters." -Benjamin Franklin Liberty means responsibility. That is why most men dread it.

Webmaster's note: I love America! I believe God wants us as Christians to obey the laws of our land (Romans 13:1-7). I am not anti-American. I simply believe that a nation will crumble if it spits in God's face by disobeying the Word of God. America has become much worse (wicked) than Sodom in the Bible. American's need to repent and turn back to God Almighty.

Likewise, I am NOT anti-government. However, I am unalterably opposed to the government's corruption and the stealing of American taxpayer's money. Our government does what they do in our name, with our money and with the power that we give them. We have every right to ask questions and expect justice. It is our Bill of Rights.

I do NOT hate anyone, I simply hate what God hates...evil. If the shoe fits, wear it. If something on this website offends you, then so be it. I do not say this to be unkind, but because you need to know the truth! America is going to hell because of sin. We are losing our nation! We are losing our freedoms! We are losing our manufacturing jobs in America! We are losing our rights to privacy! Do you think this is a coincidence? To the same degree that the American people continue to walk into the dark depths of wickedness, to that same degree America is headed for imminent destruction! God help us!

Police State USA!

"Ye that love the LORD, hate evil..." -Psalm 97:10
